

JULY 1 – SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors and Altar Servers

Please review the entire schedule.

When you are scheduled to serve and cannot, please contact someone to substitute or trade dates with you.

When you are scheduled to serve, please be in the Sacristy fifteen (15) minutes before Mass begins. For the 9:00 am and 11:00 am Masses, we will need an additional one to two Eucharistic Ministers, since we “ROAM”, so please check-in with the Sacristan to see if you are needed. Thank you.

NOTE: The Ministries Schedule will be available to you as follows: (1) emailed to you; (2) Go to [www.stjchurch.org, click on Ministries, scroll to the bottom of the page, click on SCHEDULE, click on July through September, 2018; (3) a few copies in the Sacristy.]

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion - (EM's)

Arriving fifteen (15) minutes before Mass begins will provide you the time to comfortably insure a smooth and beautiful liturgy by doing the following: Know who will serve the “Body of Christ”. The Sacristan keeps a record to share this ministry with EM’s who are able and wants to serve the “Body of Christ”. Know who will bring the Ciboria to the Altar; Know who will pour the “Blood of Christ” when the Deacon is not present; Know who will roam with the Deacon or another EM; Check-in with the Sacristan, so he will know all are present to serve. The Sacristan will not have to ask EM’s from the Assembly to serve, who are not scheduled, and then tell them they are not needed when the scheduled EM’s come the last minute. The complete “team” (Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Altar Servers and Deacon) is unified in prayer with the Presider in the Vestibule before Mass begins. This will insure a smooth and beautiful liturgy. Thank you.

LECTORS

Arriving fifteen (15) minutes before Mass begins will provide you the time to comfortably insure a smooth and beautiful liturgy by doing the following: Decide who will read each reading; Pre-read and become familiar with the reading; Pre-read and become familiar with the “Prayers of the Faithful” (pronunciation of names, additions and deletions), (absent the Deacon); Check-in with the Sacristan, so he will know all are present to serve. The Sacristan will not have to ask a Lector from the Assembly to serve, who is not scheduled, and then tell them they are not needed when the scheduled Lector comes the last minute. The complete “team” (Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Altar Servers and Deacon) is unified in prayer with the Presider in the Vestibule before Mass begins. This will insure a smooth and beautiful liturgy. Thank you.

Altar Servers

Model what the entire assembly should be doing:

Listening attentively while the Word of God is being proclaimed and the presider delivers his homily;

Singing during the Responsorial Psalm and the Gospel Acclamation;

Praying the Creed and responding to the Prayer of the Faithful. (Missal, Prayer Card and Song Book are available to you to place at your chairs.) (Please do not run in the Sanctuary. Instead, walk reverently.)

It is important that you participate in the liturgy and be and look enthusiastic while you are doing it because you are sitting up front, where the assembly can see you. Look Sharp! Look Beautiful! Take part in what is going on – and always remain alert to what the Presider, Deacon or the situation may want of you.

NOTE: At times, three (3) Altar Servers are scheduled to provide more opportunity to serve, get more practice to become more comfortable with serving. From the booklet, “The Ministry of Communion”, by Michael Kwatera, O.S.B. Liturgical ministry is something we grow into, something we shape ourselves into as it shapes us. Such ministry is not something that comes to us readymade, once and for all. Like a fine wine, our ministry is brought to perfection over time, enriched by experience, and savored as a source of joy in the Lord. “...the call to minister ... is a gift from God.

When you arrive at Mass and you are not scheduled to serve, and would like to serve, just let the Sacristan and /or the Presider know.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS - Sharing the Bread

There are three (3) kinds of necessary contact in the sharing of Communion: ocular, verbal, and tactile. Dare to let your eyes meet those of the communicant and reflect the wonder of God’s love in the Eucharist. Dare to let your voice announce God’s invitation to the banquet of eternal life. Dare to let your hands touch those of the communicant as they minister God’s holy gifts. Dare to let the communicant feel the texture of the bread and of your own hand; dare to feel the communicant’s hand...There is something especially beautiful about helping people to receive Communion in the hand. Romaro Guardini has written that “the soul’s chief instruments and clearest mirrors are the face and hands.” Even hands that are permanently soiled (like a mechanic’s) are beautiful: they testify that a person’s livelihood can be seen in the hands, hands that receive the Lord’s saving touch and our reverent one.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

As you wait to begin your service during the liturgy, look out over the congregation and say to yourself: “This assembly—this gathering of God’s holy people of which I am a part—is the Body of Christ made visible, audible, and tangible here and now, in this place, at this time. I have accepted God’s call to help this assemble, the Body of Christ, to be united with Christ their Head in Holy Communion. Everything I do and say should help them to receive the Lord Jesus more reverently and lovingly. With help, Lord Jesus, I will serve them well.”

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EM's)

Your Locations for Serving the Blood of Christ to the Assembly

The two (2) outside cup ministers need to be in line with the side walls of the Nave. The two (2) inside cup ministers position themselves as follows: One cup minister in line with the Ambo and one cup minister in line with the piano. These locations will provide a wide space between the Body of Christ EM's and the first cup EM's for a smooth and continuous flow by the communicants who receive "The Body of Christ". The communicants will be able to pass easily, without stopping, after receiving "The Body of Christ", and be able to go to their pews or receive "The Blood of Christ".

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS
Being and Giving the Body of Christ

And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus... (Col 3:17a)

In some places, the giving of “Communion Blessings” to young children and other noncommunicants is customary. These blessings by the minister fulfill a psychological need for noncommunicants to “receive something” when others receive Communion. These blessings may take the form of a small sign of the cross on the forehead, a larger one over the person, or a hand laid on the person’s head, with or without words. An extraordinary minister can give such a blessing just as clergy do. [May God Bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen!]

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

If you drop or spill the Precious Blood - DO NOT PANIC! Stop what you are doing. Your demeanor will reassure those communicants in line or, in particular, the person who may have caused the spill. Stop serving and place the purificator over the spill and position yourself over the spill. Notify the Deacon or Priest and /or the Sacristan or have another Eucharistic Minister notify the Deacon or Priest or Sacristan. They will clean up the spill.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

If you drop the Consecrated Host, our calm demeanor at this moment can calm and assure an anxious and embarrassed communicant. Pick up the Host and consume it yourself. If you feel uncomfortable consuming it, place the Host on the corner of the Corporal (white cloth on the Altar). The Deacon, Presider or another Eucharistic Minister will consume the Host. If the Host is not consumed then the Sacristan will dissolve the host in a cup of water. The dissolved host will then be poured into the ground

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS (Lectors and Altar Servers)

The perfect Eucharistic Minister is reverent (the “inner grace” of Christ becomes an “outward sign”), unhastina (patient), faithful to schedules, as faithful as humanly possible. ...Never assuming that someone else will cover a foreseen absence. Arranging a substitute when unable to minister is a mark of courtesy to the assembly and to the other Eucharistic Ministers. Knowledgeable: knowledgeable about this ministry and about the Eucharist. The commitment to serve as a Eucharistic Minister should be accompanied by some knowledge about the basis and guidelines for this ministry, and also some knowledge about the history, theology, and practice of the Eucharist.
